

Communism, 197, 198, 199
 Confessional, the, 115, 138, 140
 Consubstantiation, 175, 293, 312, 32(1)
 348
 Convocation, at St. Paul's, 37 ; refuse supplies, 38 ; summon William of Wykeham, 38 ; WycliSe summoned before, 43 ; rights vested in, 167
 Cornwall, the complaint of, 56
 Cote, John (approver), 250
 Courtenay (Archbishop of Canter bury), cited, 19, 21, 30, 38, 43, 44, 71, 79, 85 ; supports the Papacy, 78 ; issues Gregory XL's bull against the Florentines, 79 ; recalls it, 80 ; attacks Wycliffe, 80 ; action on the murder of Haule, 90 ; resigns the chancellorship, 260 ; quarrels with Richard, 283 ; inarms against heresy, 292 ; firmness in dealing with Wyclifmsm, "294 ; at Oxford, 301, 302, 303, 307 ; repressing Lollardy at Leicester, 320
 Courts
 Christian, 112
 Crccy, 16
 Criminous clerks, 167
 Crumpe, Henry (monk), 303, 304

EDWARD, 61
 Danes, their invasions of England, 53 De Dominio Civili, WycliSe's, 42 De Hseretico Comburendo, Statute Of, 334
 De Officio Regis, WycliVs, 97, 98 Debtors, and Sanctuary, 94, 96 Denia, Count of (Spanish grandee), captured by two English knights, 87 ; his son his hostage, 87
 Devon, Earl of,

17 Du Guesclin, 100 Durham, 134 Durham College, 297
 EDWABI> the Black Prince, governor of Aquitaine, 8 ; difficulties with his soldiers, 3, 4 ; dying, 9, 17 ; hostility to John of Gaunt, 18 ; rejects Lyons' bribe, 24 ; death, 26 ; burial place, 27 ; character, 27
 Edward the Third, in his last years, 4 ; influenced strongly by John of Gaunt, 9 ; liaison with Alice Per rers, 28, 29, 32 ; dissolves the Commons' Council, 31 ; cancels the Acts passed by the Good Parliament, 33 ; disliked by the people, 85 ; promises to respect the liberties